

Punta Sayulita Presents An Evening with Evelyne Boren

Time: 5:00 pm local (6:00 pm CST)

Date: Thursday, February 18, 2010

Location: Punta Sayulita Beach House
Sayulita (On the beach next to Don Pedro's)

Punta Sayulita is pleased to invite you to attend a very special showing of the works from internationally acclaimed artist and Sayulita resident, Evelyne Boren. Known for her vibrant water colors and beautifully textured oils, Evelyne's 4,500 paintings are now on display in private collections around the world.

In addition to viewing some of Evelyne's paintings from her private Sayulita studio, Evelyne will give an entertaining talk about her life growing-up in Germany during World War II, to her career as an underwater stunt woman, fashion model, her philosophy and inspiration for her paintings as well as how Sayulita has provided inspiration for her body of work. Evelyne's talk will be followed by time for questions and answers and a casual cocktail party during which time Evelyne will have a copies of her biography, Evelyne Boren Joie de Vivre, available for purchase and signing.

Evelyne Boren, Biography::

Internationally renowned artist and long time Sayulita resident, Evelyn Boren, has been painting vibrant water colors and beautifully textured oils for nearly 5 decades. Close to 4,500 of Evelyn's paintings are on display in private collections across the world. Dividing her time between Sayulita, Santa Fe, Tuscany and France, Evelyne embraces the beauty and unique energy of each culture, capturing them impressionistically in her colorful works. Further information on Evelyne Boren can be found at www.evelyneboren.com.

